

Candidates

IT Support Specialist

With experience defining software requirements and working with developers. Customer focused; support changing business initiatives, as well as discover more efficient processes to reduce redundancy.

Production Manager

Oversees daily operations managing a staff of 50+ employees. Schedule production according to customer demand. Process finished goods promptly while following company quality guidelines. Communicate to all management order of schedule for production priority. Maintain national accounts to no fall down. Coordinate shipping and receiving to maintain all tracking systems.

Medical Billing Manager

With stable history and excellent supervisory skills. All aspects of billing procedures including intake payer information and verification, third party rejections, invoice generation and customer service.