

About Us

Companies are made up of people. Having the right people in the right places can mean the difference between success and failure. Wegener Human Resource Group takes the time to learn about the employers and individuals who come to us. We match a person's skills, personality, attitude, work schedule, and career goals to the needs of our clients.

Our automated search and placement system combined with a staff backed by 60 years of experience, ensure that our clients are seeing the right candidates for their career openings. So call our staff of professionals today and let us assist you with your career or staffing needs.

Wegener Information Technology specializes in recruiting Information Technology Professionals at all levels, and placing them in positions that match their needs, and the client companies needs.

Contract Consulting, Contract-to-Hire, and Direct Hire.

We provide consulting and staffing services in the areas of client/server development, LAN/WAN engineering and administration, software testing, help desk/desktop support, technical writing, IT Management, telecommunications, and more.
